

THE RED POPPY

Décor by Boris Aronson for Reinhold Glière's ballet which will be introduced to New York at the Civic Center on April 9th by the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. This work, first seen at the Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow in 1927, is perhaps the best-known ballet in the repertory of Soviet Russia. It has been revised for this production.